

February 2018

Armagnac Janneau XO receives a Gold Medal by Gilbert & Gaillard

Armagnac Janneau XO won a Gold Medal at the last competition of the famous guide of wines and spirits Gilbert & Gaillard, after a tasting by experts. This medal rewards the Cellar Master experience, working to develop this complex blend of very old Armagnacs aged in ancient oak casks.

Score : 89/100

« Beautiful coppery colour with blaze highlights. The nose is full, expressive, fruity and spicy. The palate is sober, balanced and airy and offers aromatic notes of great clarity with spicy flavours on the finish. »

